1. The Aruraktarosasi Hivatal (Warehousing Bureau - ARHI), Tolbucshia Kőrut 2, Budapest V., is responsible for storage of all kinds of commodities in Hungary. Its responsibilities include the reserves of war supplies, including coal. In June, 30,000 tons of Oresslány slate coal was in the process of being stored (place not known). Some coal had been stored at Pusztavám, County Fehér, near Mór, but this proved an unsuitable spot, as large-scale spontaneous combustion occurred there recently. Hungarian coal is apparently not suitable for storing in very deep layers.
